

Student Excuses from the 1928
Lehision Year Book

“I had to go home; I had the blind staggers” -Fay Evans

“I was sick yesterday. I was out all day.” Ellis Powell

“I just didn’t get up in time” Arthur Powell

“I had a date with the dentist” Stewart Lottomger

“I haven’t a class before this one” Dean Johnson

“I didn’t know we had to have one-Joseph Rothe

“I took my note book home last night and couldn’t find it in the morning.” Homer Trinnaman

“They had a cave-in at the lime-kiln” Roland Tidd

“I had to milk twelve cows.” Lynn Lewis

“The truck got stuck and we had to walk.” Marion Cook

“We had to rest up for the basketball game” Jay Whitman

“I thought we missed this class today” Homer Royle

“Arnold Ball told me there wouldn’t be class today” Monty Anderson.

Teachers still here these same sort of excuses 93 years later.